VEGAN FRIED CHICK*N SPICY FILLETS

FUNNYBONES EXPANDS VEGAN RANGE WITH CRISPY AND SPICY CHICK*N FILLETS, PERFECT FOR BURGERS

Funnybones' new spicy chick*n fillets bolster the vegan burger range. Coated in a crispy, spicy, corn flake crunch, the fillets arrive frozen to avoid unnecessary food waste, and require just minutes to cook. The multi-purpose fillets are an excellent plant-based substitute for any fried chicken dishes, but work especially well in a toasted brioche bun with classic burger trimmings.

For best results, the fillets can be deep-fried at 175°C for 8 minutes, which perfectly maintains their crispy coating. Alternatively, the fillets can be baked in the oven at 180°C for 20-25 minutes, pan-fried in just 15 minutes, or air-fried at 180°C for 13-15 minutes. The versatility of cooking abilities means these are compatible with any kitchen.
